

(i) Is an inferior good always a Giffen good? If not, give a graphical example.

No, as in solutions to (d) and (g)

(j) Is a Giffen good always an inferior good? If not, give a graphical example.

Yes, a Giffen good can be defined as an inferior good where the income effect is larger than the substitution effect.